EDUCATION

- Ph.D., Zoology, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B.C. 2010
Role of galectin-1 in sensory neuron development and peripheral nerve repair;
Advisor: Matt S. Ramer
- B.Sc., Cell Biology and Genetics, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, B.C. 2003
- First year life sciences, University of Toronto, Toronto, ON 2000

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

- Assistant Professor, Psychology, The University of Texas at Austin 2018 - present
Department of Neurology (by courtesy) 2018 - present
- Postdoctoral Researcher, Psychology & Neuroscience, University of Colorado Boulder, Boulder, CO
Advisor: Linda R. Watkins 2015 - 2018
- Postdoctoral Fellow, Neuroscience, Ohio State University, Columbus, OH 2011 - 2014
Advisor: Phillip G. Popovich

Interviews for book research

An author named Rebecca Fogg contacted and interviewed me several times, due to my relevant expertise in mechanisms of peripheral nerve injury and regeneration. I also provided editorial consultation on the related chapter of the book over the course of a year.

Professional Service

Co-Chair. International Online Spinal Cord Injury Seminars (I-OSCIRS). 2022-present

I-OSCIRS is a popular weekly YouTube seminar that is viewed by hundreds of SCI researchers, clinicians, and lay people. I have had a leading role in designing and refining the seminar series. I schedule and organize monthly seminars and moderators.

Chair, Programming Committee. International Online Spinal Cord Injury Seminars (I-OSCIRS). 2021-2022

Leader and Coordinator, Lived Experience Spinal Cord Injury Meetings. 2022-present

I coordinate a monthly meeting with two individuals with Lived Experience with spinal cord injury. These volunteers meet with our lab over Zoom to discuss their life with spinal cord injury, our ongoing projects, and newly published studies in the field of SCI.

Member, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Taskforce. I-OSCIRS. 2021

Chair, Trainee and Foundations Committee. I-OSCIRS. 2020-2021

Editorial Boards

Journal of Neurotrauma, Editorial Board member, 2023-present

Frontiers in Neurology, Review Editor, 2020-present

Peer reviewer (ad hoc since 2010)

Journals: Experimental Neurology; Journal of Neurotrauma; Brain, Behavior & Immunity; Scientific Reports; Journal of Neuroscience Research; Cellular and Molecular Life Sciences; Brain Research Bulletin; Oncotarget; others.

Grant Reviewer: Wings for Life Foundation (Austria), annual grant reviews (2017-present).

Grant Reviewer: Medical Research Council (UK), grant review (2023)

Grant Reviewer: Veterans Affairs Committee, Spinal Cord Injury Disorders/Pain scientific review panel (twice per year; 2017-2021).

Grant Reviewer, ad hoc: National Institutes of Health, Clinical Neuroplasticity and Neurotransmitters scientific review panel (October 2020, June 2023).

Grant Reviewer, ad hoc: Department of Defense: Peer Reviewed Medical Research Program on the Discovery - Mitochondrial Disease (June 2023).

Grant Reviewer, ad hoc: Paralyzed Veterans of America Research Foundation (September 2023).

Grant Reviewer, ad hoc: Department of Defense Congressionally Directed Medical Research Programs: Preservation and Protection peer review panel for the Spinal Cord Injury Research Program (October 2023).

Professional Memberships

Society for Neuroscience, 2007-present

TIRR Foundation-Mission Connect, 2019-present

Society for Research on Biological Rhythms, 2019-present

TEACHING POSITIONS

Current Courses

"Biological Clocks and Behavior," Department of Psychology, University of Texas at Austin. 2018, Spring 2020, Fall 2020, Fall 2021, Spring 2023, Fall 2023.

- Upper-level undergraduate course focused on how the nervous and endocrine systems synchronize internal biological clocks to the external environment.

- Writing flag course – aim to enhance learners’ writing skills; collaboration via team-based learning; data interpretation; and critical thinking abilities

“Biopsychology,” Department of Psychology, University of Texas at Austin. Spring 2024.

- Upper-level undergraduate course exploring the biological basis of psychology and behavior
- Developing a team-based course that incorporates critical thinking and data interpretation

“Current Topics in Behavioral Neuroscience,” Department of Psychology, University of Texas at Austin. Fall 2019, Fall 2021.

- Graduate-level seminar course with diverse expert speakers in the realm of behavioral neuroscience. I enabled engagement of students and trainees through participation in speaker introductions and in question periods.

“Neuroinflammation in Health and Pathology,” Department of Psychology, University of Texas at Austin. Spring 2019, Spring 2022.

- Graduate-level seminar course with diverse speakers discussing neuroimmune mechanisms of pathology in pre-clinical and clinical research.

Past Teaching Experience

Instructor, Graduate Professional Development Class, University of Colorado Boulder. 2017.

Instructor, Principles of Neuroimmunology Class, MVIMG 750, Ohio State University. 2011, 2013.

Instructor, Fourth Year Developmental Neurobiology Course, University of British Columbia. 2008 (twice), 2009, 2010.

Instructor, Third Year Cell Physiology Course, University of British Columbia. 2010.

Teaching Assistant, First Year Human Physiology, University of British Columbia. 2004, 2005, 2007-2009

Teaching Assistant, Third Year Cell Physiology, University of British Columbia. 2003-05.
